

Application Questions - CELFIS 2024

N.B. This document is provided as a reference to make it easier for you to work on a draft version of your answers. Final versions of your written answers must be submitted via the online form.

Application Deadline: Thursday April 11, 2024

There are suggested word limits for your responses.

Next to each question, you will see a recommended answer length (e.g. 100 - 200 words). This is meant to give you an idea of the length of answers we are expecting.

We are here to help!

If you have any questions about this form or if you need support answering any of the questions, please contact us at communityengagement@concordia.ca

General Information

Your full name

Concordia student ID

Email Address

Phone Number

Mailing Address

Having this information will make it easier and faster for us to issue your cheque if your project is selected for funding.

Eligibility

Name of master's or PhD program at Concordia University

What is your program of study and what is your expected graduation date ?

Which Indigenous group(s) do you identify with?

First Nation; Inuit; Metis; Other

Name of your community(ies)

Tell us which Indigenous community/ies you identify with

Are you registered with the Otsenhákta Student Centre?

Concordia offers several awards for students based on equity, diversity and inclusivity considerations. For awards intended for Indigenous students, registration with the Otsenhákta Student Centre is encouraged.

If not, please register with the Otsenhákta Student Centre using the online form:

https://forms.office.com/pages/responsepage.aspx?id=hfFpVS_SE06YUM5bGrzS6N4QQQ6SpxxCuh2QsncyleJUQU1CSlhMMFRYTU9YV1dZWFNLMEUxMjA4Si4u

When filling in the registration form, you will be prompted to provide your Concordia email address in order to gain access. Every Concordia student has a default email address that is associated with their netname. Simply enter the format as NETNAME@live.concordia.ca

Are you currently receiving funding from the Office of Community Engagement or the SHIFT Centre for Social Transformation?

Funding Application

Please introduce yourself

You can tell us about your Nation/s, community/ies, family/ies, pronouns, etc.
(recommended length: 100 - 200 words)

Project Name

Please choose a brief name to help us refer to your project.

What is your project?

Describe what you are planning to do and why.
(recommended length: 200 - 300 words)

How is this project connected to your graduate work at Concordia?

Tell us what you are hoping to learn and how this will contribute to your graduate studies?
(recommended length: 100 words)

Who are your Indigenous collaborators?

Who are the community members involved in your project? Tell us how you relate to this group or these individuals? Are they part of a larger group/organization/community/grassroot initiative?
(recommended length: 100 - 200 words)

How are your collaborators involved in your project?

Are they involved in defining the research's objectives? Are they participants? Co-researchers? Will they benefit from your project's outcome? All the above?
(recommended length: 200 - 300 words)

Which impact(s) are you hoping your project will have in the short, medium or long-term?

Tell us how your project will help address a specific issue by developing skills, capacities, knowledge and/or well-being of the community concerned.

(recommended length: 100 - 200 words)

How are Indigenous methods integrated in your project?

Tell us how you will carry out your project. Which methodologies and pedagogies will you use?

Is your project driven by Indigenous principles and values? Which ones?

(recommended length: 200 - 300 words)

How will the funding requested help you carry out community-based research and implement Indigenous methodologies?

Please write the amount (max $6,000) you are requesting and detail how you are planning to spend the money. (recommended length: 100 - 200 words)

For example:

Amount requested : $4,000

$500 x 2 Elders

$100 x 5 community members

$600 overnight stay and gas to and from community

$300 for catering for gathering

$200 honorarium for local photographer to document gathering

$400 purchasing of material for workshop

$1000 honorarium for translators

Optional – Will you submit a letter of support?

You can submit a letter of support that demonstrates the relevancy of your project. The letter should help us understand how your project is rooted in community and anchored in Indigenous methods.

Please send your letter before the deadline at communityengagement@concordia.ca