10.12

Arbitration Process

- a) Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, all grievances are heard before a single arbitrator as chosen by both parties. If the parties fail to agree on the choice of an arbitrator, either party may ask the ministère du Travail to nominate an arbitrator.
- b) The jurisdiction of the arbitrator is limited to conditions established in the present agreement and in no case does the Arbitrator have the power to add to, subtract from or modify the agreement in any way. The decision of the arbitrator is final and binding on the parties.

The arbitrator may render any other fair and equitable decision under the circumstances as well as determine, if appropriate, the amount of compensation and/or damages to which an employee unjustly treated may have the right.

- d) The fees and expenses of the arbitrator will be divided equally between the parties, except for a grievance filed under paragraph 15.04 a).

The University is not held responsible for any action taken on the basis of the seniority lists prior to the date of the contestation.

15.02 a) When a position in the staff complement is to be filled, the University must post it on the Human Resources Department web site for ten (10) working days.

The posting is sent by email to the employees, and simultaneously to the Union. A copy of the posting is sent via internal mail to those employees who do not have an email address or immediate access to a computer.

An amended posting must be reposted as per the aforementioned procedure with the mention "amended posting".

The University will remit a list to the Union, containing the names of each of the candidates, providing that said candidate has signed the appropriate waiver.

b) If none of the candidates in paragraph 15.04 a) have the qualifications to satisfy the normal requirements of the position, the University must grant the position to the candidate who is a probationary employee or a temporary employee, with the most seniority, unless she/he does not have the qualifications to satisfy the normal requirements of the position. A probationary employee must have the permission of the home department to apply.

- i) Notwithstanding the posting procedure provided above, the University may offer to divide the duties among the employees of the Department and pay them a stipend. In such a case, the University will inform the employees of the department as well as the Union as to the requested duties, the expected duration of the assignment and the amount of the stipend. These duties are performed on a voluntary basis and upon reception of the University's offer, which confirms the duties to be performed, the expected duration of the assignment, the method of calculation and the amount of the stipend. The employee must state her/his acceptance in writing, with a copy to the Union, of the terms offered by the University, and of any potential extension.

- 28.02 The distribution of the maternity leave before and after the birth is at the employee's discretion and includes the date of delivery. However, the leave can start as soon as the beginning of the 16th week preceding the date of birth and ends no later than 18 weeks after the week of birth.
- 28.03 If the birth occurs after the due date, the employee is entitled to an extension of her maternity leave for the length of time the birth is overdue, unless she has at least two (2) weeks of maternity leave left after the birth.
- 28.04 A maternity leave can be split, interrupted or extended in accordance with the conditions provided in section V of the present article 28.

The employee must present a medical certificate to this effect as soon as possible. The employee so assigned retains the rights and privileges of her regular position.

However, if the CSST rejects the claim by the employee who is unable to work, she is entitled to a leave as provided in the following paragraph b). If the Commission des Lésions Professionnelles renders a decision in favour of the employee, she must reimburse the sums paid as sick leave.

As soon as the University receives a request for preventive reassignment, it will immediately inform the Union and cite the name of the employee and the reasons for the request.

- b) Requests for early retirement with retirement allowance must be received by the Pension and Benefits unit of the Human Resources Department between June 1st and November 30th, inclusively, for a retirement date intended for the following collective agreement year.
 - c) To submit her/his request, a permanent employee must be at least fifty-five (55) years old and have completed a minimum of fifteen (15) years of service. However, a request by a permanent employee who is at least fifty-four (54) years old and who has completed at least fourteen (14) years of service will be considered if she/he meets all of the eligibility criteria at the intended early retirement date.
 - d) Requests submitted during a collective agreement year are only valid for a retirement intended for the following collective agreement year. If a request is refused by the University or if the employee withdraws her/his request, she/he will be responsible for submitting a new request for a subsequent year.
 - e) Requests for early retirement with retirement allowance are granted to the candidates with the most seniority. If two candidates have the same seniority date, the older employee between the two is given priority.
 - f) An employee who has submitted a request will be notified in writing of the acceptance or refusal of her/his request by December 15th at the latest. This notice will also include the standing of her/his request among the applications received. A copy of the notice will be sent simultaneously to the Union.
 - g) An employee whose request is accepted must confirm her/his retirement date by the following March 1st, at the latest.
 - h) If an employee withdraws her/his request or does not confirm her/his retirement date within the established delays, the early retirement with retirement allowance is offered to the next candidate, in order of seniority. The offer is made in writing within the five (5) working days following March 1st, with a copy to the Union at the same time. The latter employee must in turn confirm her/his retirement date in writing, by April 30th at the latest.
 - i) An employee who has confirmed her/his retirement date must retire on that date. However, if unforeseen events arise between the date of confirmation of the retirement date and the actual retirement date (such as, but not limited to: an illness or a disability sustained by the employee, the death of the employee's spouse, a divorce or separation), the employee may decide not to retire. In such a case, the provisions set out in paragraphs a) and d) apply and the provisions set out in paragraph h) do not apply. The Union is informed of the employee's decision.
 - j) The University remits to the Union a list of the employees who have confirmed their intention to retire, by June 1st of each year of the collective agreement.
 - k) An employee benefiting from the severance indemnity as provided in clause 12.03 cannot also benefit from the lump sum as provided in the present article.

An exceptional process is in effect for employees who shall retire by the 2015-2016 collective agreement year. This procedure is described in the Letter of Agreement #6.

ARTICLE 38 CLASSIFICATION AND WAGES

38.01 Employees are paid on Friday, every two (2) weeks. Should a pay day fall on a Statutory Holiday, the pay day will be the preceding working day.

38.02 In the event of a permanent termination of employment, the University remits at the time of departure, to the employee who has made the request in sufficient time to allow at least eleven (11) working days for processing the termination of employment, and providing the effective date of termination coincides with the regular biweekly payroll run, all salaries and vacation indemnities due to her/him. Settlement options in respect of termination benefits under the Pension Plan will be forwarded within sixty (60) days from the date of termination.

38.03 a) The parties agree that salary scales in Appendix D and the mechanisms provided in the present article and in Appendix C apply to all employees.

b) Modified salary scales must be posted within five (5) working days of their modification, and remain posted until the next modification.

38.04 Job evaluation procedure

a) When the immediate supervisor and/or the employee believes that the duties of the employee's position no longer correspond with the job profile for the position, a revised job profile may be submitted to the Human Resources Department so as to have the position re-evaluated, by following the three (3) steps outlined below:

i) Developing the job profile

The immediate supervisor and the employee meet to establish a job profile whilst encouraging the exchange of information. The result of this step is a job profile that includes a narrative description of the duties, which is submitted to the Compensation unit of the Human Resources Department, with a copy to the Union, within ten (10) days.

In case of a disagreement between the immediate supervisor and the employee, the immediate supervisor determines the final content of the job profile to be submitted to the Compensation unit of the Human Resources Department. The employee may add the comments that she/he deems are appropriate.

ii) Job evaluation questionnaire (JEP)

The employee fills out the questionnaire with the participation of her/his immediate supervisor, as the case may be. If there are more specific questions, the employee may refer to the Compensation unit of the Human Resources Department for answers to her/his questions. The immediate supervisor reviews the questionnaire and approves it. The employee countersigns the questionnaire.

Any disagreement on the part of the employee is noted on the questionnaire by the employee.

The completed questionnaire is sent to the Compensation unit of the Human Resources Department, who communicates with the immediate supervisor and the employee in case of a problem or if a clarification on a score or comment is needed.

In every case, a disagreement relating to a score between an employee and her/his immediate supervisor is settled by the Compensation unit of the Human Resources Department in compliance with internal equity and well-established principles pertaining to job evaluation. Any change made to a score on the questionnaire by the Compensation unit is noted on the questionnaire.

Any modification to the questionnaire is done before submitting the questionnaire for data processing. A copy of the completed questionnaire, including the comments by the employee, her/his immediate supervisor and/or by the Compensation unit of the Human Resources Department, is sent to the Union within ten (10) days.

iii) Result of the re-evaluation

a) The result obtained by the Compensation unit of the Human Resources Department following the processing of the data is communicated in writing to the employee, her/his immediate supervisor and to the Union within ten (10) days.

In the case that the modified job profile is put into practice for the employee, a copy of this modified description is sent to the Union.

b) The entire procedure for evaluation or re-evaluation must normally be completed by the University within the six (6) months following the initial meeting between the employee and her/his immediate supervisor on the subject of the job profile as described in paragraph a) above. In no event shall the delay be longer than twelve (12) months.

c) If the job class of the position is upgraded, the salary of the employee concerned is adjusted retroactively to the date of reception of the request for reevaluation by the Human Resources Department as described in paragraph a) above.

- d) If the job class of the position is downgraded, the employee holding the position continues to be paid according to the salary scale which applied to the position before the re-evaluation and is entitled to all of the step and salary increases as if the position had not been re-evaluated. The present applies as long as the employee remains the incumbent of the position.

38.05 Determination of the job class during the life of this collective agreement

- a) As of her/his hiring, the employee will be assigned to a position and remunerated in accordance with the job class of that position. The salary to which the employee is entitled is determined in accordance with the formula used to determine salaries.
- b) In all cases, the nature of work, the characteristics and requirements of the job as outlined in the job profile and the job evaluation questionnaire will determine its job class.
- c) At hiring, the University will write to the employee with a copy to the Union confirming the position to which the employee has been assigned along with its job class and the step upon which the employee has been placed. The University will provide the employee with a job profile which includes a narrative job description. A copy of this document is also sent to the Union.

38.06 Job Profiles, Narrative Job Descriptions and Classification

- a) When an employee changes positions, the University will provide the employee with the job profile and narrative description of the position to which the employee is being assigned, as well as her/his job class and step. The Union will be informed at the same time.
- b) If the ability of an employee to fulfill her/his functions is affected by a change in her/his narrative job description, the University agrees to give that employee a supervised and directed training period of sixty (60) days.

- 38.07
- a) The salary step of each employee newly hired to a position will be determined according to the job class of the position to which she/he has been assigned, as described in clause 38.05, taking into account the education and experience required by the position as well as the education and experience of the employee.
 - b) The step will correspond to one (1) completed year of recognized experience.
 - c) A person who possesses only the minimum qualifications (education and experience) for the job to which he/she is assigned will be hired at the first step of the job class in question.

- d) However, an employee who possesses more than the minimum qualifications (education and experience) will be granted one (1) step per additional year of education and/or experience deemed valid and relevant to the duties of the position.

38.08 The period of time spent in a step will be one (1) year and each step will correspond to one (1) year of experience.

38.09 The advancement in step will be on June 1st, each year, or for the employee hired between March 1st and May 31st, the first advancement in step will be on June 1st of the year following the date of hire.

38.10 One (1) additional step will be granted on the advancement date as per clause 38.09 when the employee has acquired sufficient credits to qualify for one complete year of studies, provided these studies are deemed relevant to the functions of the position to which she/he has been assigned or to the advancement of her/his career within the University.

38.11 A change in job class, a promotion, a transfer or a demotion will not affect the date of the advancement in step.

38.12 When an employee is transferred from one position to another, with the same job class, she/he will suffer no loss in salary.

38.13 An employee promoted to a position in a higher job class, or whose position is upgraded to a higher job class receives from the date of the promotion or re-evaluation, the following, as the case may be:

- a) For a promotion to one (1) higher job class: an increase of five percent (5%). If the increase places the salary between two steps, the salary is increased to the next higher step.
- b) For a promotion to two (2) higher job classes: an increase of eight percent (8%). If the increase places the salary between two (2) steps, it is set to the closest step. If the increase places the salary exactly between two (2) steps, it is increased to the next higher step.
- c) For a promotion to three (3) higher job classes or more: an increase of twelve percent (12%). If the increase places the salary between two (2) steps, it is set to the closest step. If the increase places the salary exactly between two (2) steps, it is increased to the next higher step.

In any event, the employee may not be paid less than the first step of the job class obtained through promotion or evaluation.

- 38.14 When an employee transfers to a job with a lower job class, she/he receives, subject to the provisions of paragraph 15.04 g), the step which results in a reduction representing the difference between the first two (2) steps of the salary scale of the job to which she/he has been assigned; if the reduction places the salary between two (2) steps, it is set to the immediately higher step.
- 38.15 An employee assigned to a position with a lower job class as a result of the application of Article 35 will not suffer any reduction in salary. Her/his salary is maintained until such time as the salary scale reaches the same level.
- 38.16 In case of disagreement in the application of the present article, the case may be submitted to the grievance and arbitration procedure as provided in article 10.

APPENDIX "D" SALARIES

A) Salary increases

Effective June 1, 2010: salary rates and scales are increased by one percent (1%)

Effective June 1, 2011: salary rates and scales are increased by one percent (1%)

Effective June 1, 2012: salary rates and scales are increased by two percent (2%)

Effective June 1, 2013: salary rates and scales are increased by two percent (2%)

Effective June 1, 2014: salary rates and scales are increased by two percent (2%)

B) Employees beyond the rate or beyond the scale

If the hourly salary rate of an employee exceeds the maximum rate of her/his job class, the employee receives an increase paid as follows:

i) entirely as a lump sum payment if her/his hourly rate exceeds the maximum of her/his job class;

ii) in part as an increase to her/his rate of pay and in part as a lump sum payment, if or the increased maximum of the scale for her job class is greater than her/his rate of pay; in such cases, the employee's rate of pay is increased by the percentage required to bring it to the maximum of the scale for her/his job class; the difference between, on the one hand, the percentage increase applied to the maximum of the job class and, on the other hand, the percentage increase applied to her/his rate of pay is paid to the employee as a lump sum.

The lump sums provided herein are calculated on the employee's rate of pay prior to the salary increase and they are distributed on each pay, prorated for the regular paid hours for the period in question.

DÉCISION

En date du 22 novembre 1990, le syndicat requérant déposait au Bureau du commissaire général du travail une requête en accréditation visant un groupe de salariés de l'intimée.

Assigné à ce dossier le 21 mars 1991, le soussigné convoquait les parties à une audition qui devait être tenue à Montréal le 6 mai 1991 et remise, de consentement, au 29 mai 1991.

Or, lors de l'audition du 29 mai 1991, les intervenants qui avaient formulé des objections à la présente requête ont retiré cette opposition. De plus, le syndicat requérant et l'Université intimée se sont entendus sur la description de l'unité appropriée se réservant toutefois des droits sur un groupe imposant de salariés de façon à ce qu'un commissaire du travail détermine le statut de ces salariés.

Tout en réservant les droits des parties sur l'administration d'une preuve relative au statut des salariés dont les noms apparaissent au dossier, le soussigné réalise que, quelle que soit l'issue des décisions sur le statut de ces salariés, le syndicat requérant était majoritaire à la date du dépôt de sa requête.

Il y a donc lieu dans les circonstances d'accréditer le syndicat requérant tout en réservant le droit des parties à administrer la preuve pertinente quant au statut des salariés dont les postes sont litigieux, liste qui apparaît au dossier.

- VU la requête du 22 novembre 1990;
- VU l'accord du requérant et de l'intimée sur la description de l'unité appropriée;
- VU que les intervenants ont retiré toute opposition dans les présentes instances sauf pour ce qui a trait au statut de certains salariés dont les noms apparaissent au dossier;
- VU les dispositions du Code du travail;
- après étude du dossier, de la preuve et d'avoir sur le tout délibéré;

POUR CES MOTIFS, LE SOUSSIGNÉ

1- RÉSERVE le droit des parties quant à l'administration d'une preuve relative au statut des personnes dont les noms apparaissent au dossier, liste sur laquelle les parties se sont entendues.

2- ACCRÉDITE LE SYNDICAT DES EMPLOYÉ-E-S DE SOUTIEN DE L'UNIVERSITÉ CONCORDIA (CSN)
CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY SUPPORT STAFF UNION (CSN)
pour représenter:

"Toutes les employées et tous les employés de soutien, salarié-es au sens du Code du travail dont le salaire émerge au budget de fonctionnement de l'Université à l'exclusion de:

APPENDIX "G" PUBLICATION AND TRANSLATION OF THE COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

The University will remit 650 bilingual copies of the collective agreement within two (2) months following its signature. This two (2) month period excludes any delays independent of the will of the representatives of the University.

The Union may request additional copies.

APPENDIX "H" EMPLOYMENT EQUITY

The University is committed to employment equity and to act upon the problem of under-representation of women, aboriginal peoples, visible minorities and persons with disabilities.

The University is also committed to a working environment which is free of systemic discrimination and in which the values of equity, non-discrimination and diversity are fostered and promoted.

It is the goal of the University to achieve a workforce which represents and reflects the many groups in our society. To achieve this, the Human Resources department and the Union will take a proactive approach to the formulation of policies, programmes and goals that support the recruitment, selection, promotion and retention of the under-represented groups and employees.

APPENDIX "I" DEFERRED SALARY LEAVE

1. DEFINITIONS

- 1.01 Deferred salary leave plan (hereafter referred to as "DSLPL"): plan meant to allow an employee to finance a leave of absence by deferring part of her/his salary, in accordance with existing tax rules. The employee thus has a portion of her/his salary withheld for a predetermined period so that she/he may later benefit from a paid leave. The DSLPL is not intended to provide retirement income nor to defer income tax. The DSLPL consists of a contribution period by the employee accompanied by a leave period.
- 1.02 Contribution period: a period of two (2) to five (5) consecutive years during which the eligible employee contributes a portion of her/his salary to the plan ahead of her/his leave period.
- 1.03 Deferred salary: the percentage of the annual salary that the eligible employee, in agreement with the University, has agreed to withhold and save during each year of the contribution period.
- 1.04 Earnings: the gross annual salary received from the University by the eligible employee in a plan year.
- 1.05 Eligible employee: any employee who is covered by the provisions of the collective agreement between the University and the Concordia University Support Staff Union.
- 1.06 Fund: a trust fund established pursuant to a trust agreement with the Trustee, into which the deferred salary is paid by the University and from which payments are made to eligible employees during her/his leave period, in accordance with the terms of the DSLPL.

Such solution shall take into account the Union representative's obligations towards their members and the operational needs of the University:

- A reduction or modification of the hours of leave
- A postponement to date agreed upon by the Parties
- A postponement of the work required by the Department, in order to accommodate the union leave

- Failing agreement on a common solution, the University will decide whether or not to grant union leave. Leave shall not be denied without valid and serious motive. The University's decision is sent to the Union, in writing, within seven (7) days of the meeting.
- Should a problem arise in the search of a solution, the Parties shall consider the following factors:
 1. , Any union leave represents a constraint for the department concerned. Such a constraint must be accommodated, unless it creates undue hardship for the University by, for example, causing the cancelation of an event or an examination.
 2. The University may not systematically deny requests for union leave for the sole reason that an employee is always indispensable to the operation of the department
 3. Health and safety considerations must be taken into account by the Parties
 4. The practice established in the department in regards to union leave prior to February 27, 2006

Are exempt from the procedure described above:

- Request for union leave for the president of the Union or, as the case may be, her or his replacement.
 - Request for leave for a union representative called when the right to refuse work under the terms of the Loi sur la santé et la sécurité au travail (LSST) is exercised.
 - Request for leave of the negotiation committee during the negotiation period on the basis of 1 day preparation for 1 day's meeting with the University.

- Leave for members of the executive committee, on a monthly basis (1 day or 2 half-days per month).
 - Leave for members of the Union Council or their substitutes on a monthly basis (1 day or 2 half days per month)
 - Leave to accompany an employee at a meeting with a representative of the Employer in the situations stipulated in the collective agreement;
 - Leave for members of the negotiation committee in order to prepare texts as provided in clause 9.02 .

AND Le Syndicat des employé-e-s de soutien de l’Université Concordia (CSN)
Concordia University Support Staff Union (CSN)

hereinafter designated the “Union”

Subject: Early Retirement Allowance – Clause 37.05

WHEREAS employees were allowed by the University to apply for the Early Retirement Allowance several years in advance of their retirement year, whether or not they met the eligibility requirements of fifteen years of service and fifty-five years of age at the time of their application;

WHEREAS only nine (9) employees whose applications were accepted by the University met the eligibility requirements when they applied for the Early Retirement Allowance;

WHEREAS other employees who met the eligibility requirements were prevented from applying to the Early Retirement Allowance, since the list is considered filled until 2020 and partially filled in 2021;

WHEREAS the parties wish to address and correct this situation in a fair and equitable manner;

the parties agree to modify clause 37.05 of the collective agreement and to provide for an exceptional process in the collective agreement years 2013-2014, 2014-2015 and 2015-2016, as follows:

1. Clause 37.05 of the collective agreement is modified as follows:

37.05 Early Retirement with Retirement Allowance

In addition to the early retirement pension, a permanent employee who has completed fifteen (15) years of service and who is at least fifty-five (55) years of age may, subject to the provisions below, receive a retirement allowance calculated as a percentage of her/his annual base salary on the day preceding the effective date of retirement. The amount is determined as follows:

AGE AT EARLY RETIREMENT	PERCENTAGE OF ANNUAL BASE SALARY
55 to 60 inclusive	100%
61	80%
62	60%
63	40%
64	20%

- a) Five (5) employees may benefit from the provisions of this clause per collective agreement year (CA year) which extends from June 1 to May 31. However, if less than five (5) employees benefit from this provision during a given CA year, the unused early retirement allowances shall be deferred to the following CA year for a maximum of ten (10) employees per CA year.
- b) Applications must be received by the Pension and Benefits Unit in Human Resources, between June 1st and November 30th inclusively, to be eligible to retire in the following CA year.
- c) In order to apply, a permanent employee must be at least fifty-five (55) years old and have completed a minimum of fifteen (15) years of service. However, applications from permanent employees who are at least fifty-four (54) years old and have completed a minimum of fourteen (14) years of service will be accepted, as long as the employee meets all the eligibility requirements on the date of the projected early retirement.
- d) Applications made in any CA year are valid only for retirement scheduled for the following CA year. If a request is declined by the University or withdrawn by the employee, it is incumbent upon the employee to reapply in any subsequent year.
- e) The early retirement allowances will be granted to the employee with the most seniority. If two employees have the same seniority, the eldest employee will be given priority.
- f) An employee who has submitted an application shall be notified in writing by the University if the application request is accepted or denied no later than December 15th. The notification shall also indicate where the employee's request ranks amongst applications received. A copy of the notification shall be sent to the Union at the same time.

- g) An employee whose request is accepted must confirm the date of retirement in writing no later than the following March 1st.
- h) If the employee withdraws the request or fails to confirm the date of retirement by the prescribed deadline, the next candidate in order of seniority shall be offered the Early Retirement Allowance. The offer shall be made in writing by the fifth working day following March 1st, with a copy sent to the Union at the same time. This employee must confirm the date of retirement in writing no later than April 30th.
- i) An employee who has confirmed the date of retirement shall retire on that date. However, if the employee experiences unforeseen life events between the confirmation and the actual retirement date (such as, but not limited to: illness or disability of the employee, death of her/his spouse, divorce or separation), the employee may rescind the decision to retire. In such a case, the provisions of paragraphs a) and d) apply, and the provisions of paragraph h) do not apply. The Union will be informed when an employee rescinds the decision to retire under such circumstances.
- j) The University will provide the Union with the list of the names of employees who have confirmed their intention to retire, by June 1 of each CA year.
- k) An employee benefiting from the severance pay provided in clause 12.03 shall not benefit from the retirement allowance provided in the present clause.

3. However, the parties agree on the following exceptional procedure to be followed in the CA years 2013-14, 2014-15 and 2015-16:

- c) Two (2) retirement allowances have not been used since the introduction of the Early Retirement Allowance provisions and therefore will be made available to employees in the

 - The employees whose request is declined will also be informed in writing, and a copy sent to the Union, by September 15, 2012.
 - h) The same process will apply for the CA years 2014-15 and 2015-16, for the remaining group of employees described in paragraph 3. a) above, however the deadlines shall be modified as follows:
