

INTERNAL DEGREE TRANSFER REQUIREMENTS

Psychology & Neuroscience

The internal degree transfer applies to Concordia students who are enrolled in a degree program and wish to transfer degrees to enter a program in Psychology or Neuroscience. Examples of this include students in the BSc wishing to switch to the BA in Psychology, or students in a BComm, BEd, BComp, BEng, or BFA program applying to transfer to the BSc in Neuroscience.

If you are a BA or BSc student who does not wish to transfer your degree but just add or change to the Major in Psychology or the Specialization in Neuroscience, consult our website section Non-department Students: Entering a program in Psychology or Neuroscience.

Eligibility Information

- To be eligible for the Internal Degree Transfer you must be a current Concordia student in a degree program.
- Internal degree transfers are considered for the Fall and the Winter terms only.
- The deadline to apply for the internal degree transfer is March 1st for Fall transfers and November 1st for the Winter.

Academic Requirements:

1. Complete a minimum of 12 credits at Concordia University.
2. Achieve a minimum cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of at least 3.00 (B).
3. Students wishing to transfer to the BSc in Psychology or Neuroscience MUST have completed and/or be exempted from at least 50% of the pre-science profile with at least one course from each discipline.
4. The completion of Introductory Psychology (PSYC 200) is suggested for people entering a Psychology program, if you do not have an exemption or transfer credits (TRC) for the course. PSYC 200 is not recommended for Neuroscience.
5. Admission to the Honours program is only possible after completing the first year of the Psychology/Neuroscience program.
6. Refer to section 31.250 of the undergraduate calendar to review the program requirements & course descriptions before applying.

Psychology & Neuroscience Courses Available to NON-PSYC Students:

PSYC 200/3 (year-long course) and other 200-level PSYC courses are open to all non-PSYC/NEUR students.

Students interested in taking 300-level PSYC or NEUR courses may attend a course override appointment in the first two weeks of each term to request permission to enroll, space permitting. The override dates will be posted on the Department of Psychology & Neuroscience webpage at the latest two weeks prior to the start of each term.

Transferrable Courses:

Credits completed at Concordia with a grade of C- or better and any transfer credits that you were awarded in your current program are eligible for transfer.
