

MARGARET: (FAIRLY SCREAMING) Margaret!

MACNAB: Our neice---

MARGARET: I'm not your nieceⓈ-

MACNAB: Ernest's by marriage -- mine by my youngest sister --

at Kirstie MacNab -- died in ~~xxxxix~~ Aberdeen--Ⓢ I have taken out the license Ⓢ Ye may start Mr. SchultzⓈ-- MUSIC UP AND INTO WHATEVER YOU WANT TO SHOW THAT THE MARRIAGE HAS

TAKEN PLACE

MACNAB: Ye may put away the gun now, Ernest.

HAROLD: Put away the gun now, Ernest.

ERNEST: (SWALLOWING LOUDLY) He ain't kissed her yet.

MARGARET: If he does -- I'll bite him!

HAROLD: Bite him! MARGARET: Harold, be quiet!

ERNEST: Look -- Maggie -- you know as well as I do -- I ain't goin' aroun' shootin' wimmenⓈ-

MARGARET: Why -- I --

ERNEST: You could of went jist whenever you wantedⓈ

JIMMY: Maggie --- I -- I'm willing-Ⓢ

MARGARET: Margaret! (PAUSE)
 Well ---

JIMMY: Just one thing.

MARGARET: Yes, Jimmy.

JIMMY: Worms -- about fishing with worms.

ERNEST: Real good bait. Beginnin' of the season you----

MARGARET: Us Riddles -- don't use worms -- everⓈ--

JIMMY: Maggie -- Maggie---

MARGARET: (GENTLY) Margaret. I'll be a good girl, Jimmy.

HAROLD: She'll be a good girl, Jimmy.

MUSIC UP AND END

*I see the kind of last Harold - he could pipe up a couple of times in this last scene - end with
 "she'll be a good girl, Jimmy."*