

PLUS LOAN FOR PARENTS FUND RELEASE FORM

CONCORDIA STUDENT ID NO:

Under the US Federal Direct Loan Program, when you apply for a PLUS Loan for Parents, funds are sent directly to Concordia University via wire transfer. Given that the loan is issued in the parent’s name, Concordia University must obtain the parent’s written permission to release any excess funds to their dependent to cover living expenses.

Without your authorization, funds received by the University will be converted into a refund cheque (issued in US dollars) which will be in your name and mailed to your permanent home address. As a result, your dependent will not have access to these funds.

By signing below, you, the parent, authorize Concordia University to issue a refund cheque directly to your dependent should a credit balance remain on their student account after tuition and fees have been paid.
