Genium 360 Awards for Women in Engineering in Student Groups

The purpose of the Fund and Awards is to empower women engineering students, foster student activities, promote innovative ideas in engineering and support the overall engineering community.

Genium360 is a network of services for engineering professionals in Quebec. Its mission is to connect the engineering community. With Genium360's gift, they will help cultivate gender equity and an innovative mindset among engineering students, support student activities, initiatives, and the engineering community as a whole at the Gina Cody School of Engineering and Computer Science and beyond.
