La bourse in Memoriam Kelly Oliel Award

La bourse in memoriam Kelly Oliel Award was created by the Département d'études françaises to honour the memory of former student Kelly Oliel, who passed away in July 2022 after a valiant battle with Ewing's sarcoma. The Award will assist an undergraduate student who, like Kelly, combines strong academic achievement with participation in Department and volunteer activities.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Enrolled in a course of study leading to a Bachelor's of Translation (Specialization, co-op or major) from the Département d'études françaises, in second year of studies or beyond.
- Applicants must be studying full-time for the Fall 2024 and Winter 2025 terms.
- Applicants must have a GPA of 3.3 or higher.
- Canadian Citizens, Permanent Residents, and International Students are eligible.
- Applicants will be assessed based on strong academic achievement with a commitment to community.

Award Value: $675.00

How to Apply:

Qualified students who wish to be considered for this scholarship must, in addition to their application form provide:

- A one-page letter describing their involvement in Department and volunteer activities, along with a letter of reference from a volunteer organization with which they are involved (if applicable).
 - Examples of involvement in Department and volunteer activities may include, by way of example only, participation in the Department's translation games (Jeux de la Traduction), and/or participation in conferences, written research papers, and/or member of USAT student association, and/or external community involvement (volunteering).

To submit your application, all documentation must be securely uploaded through your Student Centre. Detailed instructions on the process can be found at the following link:
