Sogex Accountancy Scholarship

This scholarship was established through the generosity of Georges Massi & family, a Democratic Republic of Congo-born international student who studied in the accounting program and worked in the field. Georges Massi later built Sogex Global, a professional services organization, providing accounting, consulting, financial advisory and trade advisory services for 20+ years.

The scholarship was established to support and encourage International Undergraduate students, who are actively involved in the African community to excel in their desired field of study
