

Communications Assistant, Montreal Indigenous Community NETWORK

Description of Organization

The Montreal Indigenous Community NETWORK envisions an urban setting where the well-being and growth of First Nations, Inuit and Métis communities throughout Tiohtià:ke/Montreal are led by Indigenous communities.

The NETWORK contributes to establishing and fostering an environment centered on relationship-building and community connections that ensure safe and abundant access to culturally relevant information, services, and resources. We are working towards an urban setting which honours, respects and celebrates the diversity of Indigenous knowledge, cultures and innovation.

Responsibilities and deliverables

The main objective of the communication's assistant (intern) is to promote announcements made by our partners.

In this role, the intern will be brought to (10 hours a week):

- Receive announcements from our partners.
- Write and translate partner's announcements on our website.
- Promote the announcements weekly on social media (Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn).
- Use Canva to create visuals to promote the announcements on social media.
- Follow up with partners by email.
- Participate in weekly meetings with the communications team and with the NETWORK team (3 hours a week).

Furthermore, the intern will be brought to create a social media campaign of their choice at the end of their internship. The subject of this campaign will depend on the experience and interest of the intern, and can be related to the different NETWORK's activities (community announcements, research reports, annual report, mental health program, resources guide for community members, etc.) or to the NETWORK's awareness activities (Indigenous realities, prejudice, homelessness,
