

Short Play Festival

Facilitated by Mindy Parfitt

An evening of short plays by published authors which has been completely envisioned and created by students.

We would like to acknowledge that Concordia is located on stolen lands belonging to the Mohawk people; the Kanien'kenhá:ka Nation. Today we gather in Tiohtià:ke/Montreal: "where the boats and rivers meet", and where we continue to connect, create, work, play, learn, and perform. Tiohtià:ke is home to Indigenous peoples who face ongoing systemic oppression and adversity. We respect the continued connections with the past, present, and future in our efforts to reconcile broken treaties and broken trust. We invite you to consider what it means to "acknowledge" the land, and challenge you to engage with the land, recognizing the buried rivers and bones beneath your feet.
